TUESDAY, JULY 24, 1866.

WE ARE of those who neither approved of the speech of Mr. GRINNELL, of Iowa, nor of his caning for it by Gen. ROSSEAU, of Kentucky. The speech was not simply open to the charge of strong personalities, which are the disgrace of congressional and journalistic discussions in this country, but it was coarse even to vulgarity. No excuse could validate such a piece of declamation; much less the plea that Gen. ROSSEAU, at some public meeting, had made equally free with the speaker. If the General saw fit to make a blackguard of himself, no good reason could be found in that circumstance for Mr. GRINNELL to sink himself to the same level, and for making the House of Representatives the theatre of a disgusting exhibition.

General ROSSEAU has resigned. Doubtless he will be a candidate for re-election, and be returned by an increased majority. Mr. GRINNELL, on the other hand, has failed of a renomination because the news of his being caned did not reach his district before the Conference met. Report has it his wounds are to be plastered with the Governorship of his State. Perhaps there are other men who would invite a caning if certain a Governorship would follow.

MR. CORNEY WALBORN, Postmaster at Philadelphia, has long had an ardent dislike for Mr. WILLIAM D. KELLEY. Two years ago he was disposed to give that gentleman trouble in his canvass for re-election to Congress, and only desisted when he was urged thereto by President LINCOLN, whose request he construed into a command. Since then CORNEY has become a vehement JOHNSON man, and is now disposed to resign his Postmastership and run for Congress against Mr. KELLEY. Of course he will have the President on his side if he embarks actually in this enterprise. His qualifications for a seat in Congress are slim enough; but that consideration did not deter him from running, as he stands no chance of an election. However gratifying to resentments a dash at Mr. KELLEY, as his competitor, might prove to WALBORN, we suspect he will conclude the Post Office to be "a sure thing," and hold on to it.

THE MARVEL is not that loyal men are leaving the Cabinet. The mystery is how they could stay in it so long and thus help the President betray the cause of the Union into the hands of Rebels and Copperheads. If they did not see, months ago, when they were excusing and defending the President, the real drift of things, they have none of the elements in them out of which statesmen are manufactured. If they did see, and yet helped to conceal the plot, the blame certainly divides, perhaps unequally, between them and the President.

DEMOCRATS got up the late civil war because they preferred to be out of the Union rather than submit to the verdict of the people when it went against them. Now they are threatening another civil war, under a pretense that they want to get back into the Union and are cruelly prevented. As they did not get out as easily as they hoped, so they find find it difficult to get back precisely as they were. They had better take matters patiently.

THE Republicans are not without hope of carrying the Luzerne and Susquehanna Congressional District. Mr. W. W. Ketchum, as the Republican candidate, made a close run two years ago. Mr. T. Strong, a cousin of Judge Strong of the Supreme Court, has been named in connection with the nomination this year. He is a gentleman of fine abilities and unblemished personal character.

ALL through the war Mr. CLYMER thought it much worse than in vain to send men to the defence of the Union, and he refused to vote a man or a dollar. In his speech to the Reading Convention he talked in the same key. He seemed to have no doubt but all the sacrifices of patriot blood had been made in vain. If he was a patriot he would take a different view of the case.

IT is a significant fact that Gov. Dennison, who has refused to serve any longer in Mr. Johnson's Cabinet, was President of the National Convention that put Lincoln and Johnson in nomination. He was a warm personal friend and supporter of Mr. Lincoln, and evidently his understanding of the reconstruction policy of the latter is somewhat different from that of Mr. Johnson.

MR. CLYMER protests that "though perhaps mistaken, he acted from honest intentions" in opposing all measures for the suppression of the rebellion. Did he never hear the adage that "hell is paved with good intentions?" Of what avail is it for a man to intend well, if he constantly manages to do wrong?

MR. CLYMER, in a speech he made at the Reading Convention, grew pathetic over the money spent to secure a restoration of the Union. That was precisely in his way. He was in anguish when the money was voted, and did the best he could not to have a dollar of it granted.

HON. WM. D. KELLEY, in a letter to J. M. Willis Geist, of the Lancaster Express, declines being a candidate for the United States Senate, and declares himself favorable to the election of Thaddeus Stevens to that position.

DESPITE the plighted faith of France that the French army will be withdrawn from Mexico, the first installment in November, it is certain that Fresh levies from France, have, within a few days, landed at Vera Cruz.

MR. CLYMER's metaphors are somewhat obscure. He speaks of a harvest he means to gather next October, "amid the frosts." Does he begin to suspect he is destined to "stay out in the cold?"

MAJ. GEN. WM. T. SHERMAN has received the honorary degree of L.L.D., from Dartmouth College, N. H.

J. WESLEY DEAL, Esq., has been re-appointed Postmaster at Chambersburg, Pa.

—Recently the Captain of a vessel at Detroit took out a manifest for twenty-five barrels of whisky, to be shipped to Vermillion, Ohio; then crossed the river by night to Winthrop, C. W., where the water, with which the barrels had been filled, was drawn off, and they were refilled with whisky. The vessel then sailed for Vermillion, where the manifest was exhibited and found to be correct. Within a short time the Custom House officers received information of this sharp practice, and immediately seized the vessel and eight barrels of whisky, which remained on board. The owner was tried in Cleveland and fined $1,000.

JOHN B. ELDRIDGE, President.
HARTFORD, July 13, 1866.

To the Patrons of the Connecticut Fire Insurance Company:
The Old Connecticut takes pleasure in announcing to its patrons that the disastrous conflagration in Portland, on the Fourth of July, has in no way affected its soundness or prosperity. It has just declared and paid its 28th dividend, and the money is in bank to pay every dollar of its losses, most of which have been adjusted and paid. The claims already adjusted reduce its whole loss to $17,000, which it is expected will be still further reduced by adjustments now being made. After paying every dollar of its losses it has a cash surplus of $60,000; can reinsure every risk, and show a larger per centage of surplus than, with very few exceptions, any company now doing business.

To the Martyrs of Liver Complaint.
Among the wonderful medical properties which have rendered HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS pre-eminent among the health-restoring preparations of the age, its anti-bilious virtues are not the least remarkable. No words can do justice to its marvelous effect upon the diseased liver. Perhaps the simple words of a convalescent sufferer, who describes it as "going right to the spot," tell the story as clearly as may be. It does go right to the spot. It operates directly upon the disordered organ, and whether unduly active or in a state of paralysis, restores it to a condition of health. The Sickness at the Stomach, pain between the Shoulders and in the Right Side, Yellow Suffusion of the Skin, Costiveness, Drowsiness and Languor, Dimness of Sight, Colic, Palpitation of the Heart, Dry Cough, Low Fever, and other symptoms which indicate the various phases of Acute and Chronic Liver Complaint, are one and all promptly relieved, and finally removed, by the action of this famous preparation, which is at once the best of correctives, the gentlest and most genial of aperients, an infallible regulator, and a powerful restorative. Persons of a bilious habit, who use the Bitters as a protective medicine, will never suffer the pains and penalties of Liver disease or Bilious Remittent Fever.

Hostetter's Bitters
Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

Red River papers record two more murders by negro soldiers, or negroes dressed as U. S. troops. The parties appear almost every day on the public highway, and rob and assassinate. The people have made a strong appeal to the Commanding General to stop it, but ineffectually. They now call a meeting of citizens. Neither life nor property is safe.

CONGRESSIONAL PROCEEDINGS.

WASHINGTON, July 23, 1866.

SENATE.

Mr. Grimes called up the bill to define the number and regulate the appointment of officers of the Navy, recently passed by the Senate and amended in the House.

On motion of Mr. Grimes, the House amendments were concurred in. The bill goes to the President.

Mr. Morrill, from the Committee on the District of Columbia, reported a resolution tendering the further use of the building used for the Soldiers and Sailors' Orphan Fair, to the directors of the institution for another Fair.

On motion of Mr. Chandler, it was ordered that the Senate take a recess at half-past four o'clock, to meet again at 7:30 for the consideration of bills from the Committee of Commerce.

Mr. Wilson called up the resolution giving soldiers and sailors held as prisoners of war the commutation price of their rations while so held. The resolution was passed and goes back to the House for concurrence in the amendments.

Mr. Howard offered a resolution that the Joint Committee on Retrenchment be instructed to [illegible] to the mode of collecting, and disposal made of captured and abandoned property in the States lately in rebellion, by officers and agents of the Treasury Department, and that the Committee be invested with full powers to send for persons and papers. The resolution was adopted.

Mr. Chandler said that last December he promised on the floor of the Senate, to introduce the present British neutrality laws of the two countries, and he had found that identically the same law under which, in this country, the Fenians were stopped from invading Canada, was the law under which British sailors were enlisted for rebel pirate service. It would be seen at a glance that it was a mere farce to continue such laws. He therefore asked the adoption of the following resolution:

Resolved, That the Committee on Foreign Relations be directed to inquire into the expediency of repealing our present neutrality laws.

Mr. Cowan objected and the resolution lies over.

Mr. Trumbull offered the following resolution, which was adopted:

Resolved, That the Secretary of war be authorized to transfer to the Illinois Soldiers' College and Military Academy, from the surplus on hand not needed from the public service, the cots and bedding necessary to accommodate five hundred persons, for the use of the students in said institution disabled by the war.

Mr. Poland offered a resolution calling upon the Secretary of the Treasury for a statement of the amount of internal revenue paid into the Treasury by the Collectors of Vermont. This was amended so as to include Kentucky, and as amended, passed.

Mr. Poland said he would like to know if it was the intention of the Senate to pass the bankrupt bill at the present session. He hoped it was. He was in favor of prolonging the session, if necessary, for that purpose. In order to test the sense of the Senate, he would move to take up the bill. If the motion prevailed, he would postpone the consideration of the measure until to-morrow, and be wished the sense of the Senate tested.

Mr. Johnson expressed himself in favor of the bill, and hoped it would be passed.

Mr. Sumner hoped that the Senate would not adjourn without passing the bill. It might need some amendments, but some bill on the subject ought to be passed.

Mr. Cowan said he was opposed to the bill in its present form. He was opposed to any bankrupt bill which took bankrupt cases into the United States Courts.

Mr. Guthrie was in favor of a bankrupt bill. He hoped, however, that the present bill would not be passed, but that the subject would go over until the next session.

Mr. Lane was opposed to the bankrupt bill now, or at any other time. He hoped the bounty bill would be passed.

Mr. Sherman moved to lay Mr. Poland's motion on the table.

Mr. Sherman's motion to lay the matter on the table prevailed. The motion to take the bill up was laid on the table.

Mr. Sherman called up the Civil Appropriation bill.

The pending question was upon the amendment of Mr. Davis appropriating five million dollars for the payment of slaveholders for slaves mustered into the military service under the call of January, 1864.

Mr. Wilson moved to amend the above by substituting a proviso that the Secretary of War be licensed to pay out of what is known as the commutation draft fund, a sum not to exceed three hundred dollars, each for every slave owned by loyal men and mustered into the service, provided, that before receiving any such compensation, the claimant shall give undoubted proof of his loyalty, and that he availed himself of every opportunity to assist the Union forces in the contest against the rebels.

Mr. Wilson's amendment was concurred in, by yeas 25, nays 6.

The question was then on the amendment as amended.

Mr. Sherman inquired how much there was in the commutation fund.

Mr. Wilson said it was more than five millions.

Mr. Sherman asked if that would be enough.

Mr. Johnson said it would be more than enough.

Mr. Wilson did not believe it would take more than six millions to comply with the requirements of this law.

Mr. Johnson spoke in favor of the amendment and hoped it would be adopted.

Mr. Creswell said that the amount of commutation fund was nine millions five hundred and fourteen thousand nine hundred and twenty-three dollars. Between eight and nine thousand colored men were enlisted in Maryland. Of these about one-half were slaves and the Commissioners have estimated that it would take $152,000 to comply with this law in Maryland, which would leave nearly nine millions for the claims of Delaware, Kentucky and Missouri.

Mr. Wilson offered an amendment in the form of a provision that no money shall be paid under this provision until the Commissioners appointed under the act of June, 1864, shall have made their final report. This was agreed to, yeas 18, nays 13. The amendment as amended was then agreed to.

Mr. Chandler, from the Committee on Commerce, reported an amendment appropriating $15,000 for the erection of a light house at Della Boy, Lake Superior.

Mr. Chandler reported an amendment appropriating $6,000 for a light house at South Haven, Michigan.

Mr. Chandler also moved to appropriate twenty thousand dollars instead of seventy thousand dollars, as proposed for the repair and completion of the pier of the Light House at Waberchance, straits of Mackinac.

Mr. Grimes moved to amend as as an additional section as follows, that midshipmen and acting midshipmen of the United States navy, shall be entitled to one ration or commutation thereof. Adopted.

The Senate went into executive session, and at half past four took a recess to meet at 7:30 P. M.

EVENING SESSION.

The bill was passed authorizing the issue of certificates of enrolment, or registry, to certain steamers, among which are the following, Jane Congerd, of Oswego, N. Y.; B. N. Ford, of Buffalo, N. Y.; Sweet Home, of Rochester, N. Y.; Alma, of Lodera, N. Y.; Marco Palo, of Erie, Pa.; the brig Three Bells, of Buffalo, N. Y.; sloop Dolphin, of Alexandria Bay, N. Y.

A bill was also passed making certain changes in ports of entry on the Pacific coast.

The bill relating to collection districts in North Carolina was passed, and goes to the House.

The bill fixing the compensation of certain Collectors of Customs was passed and sent to the House.

A bill was passed to prevent sailors from wearing sheath knives on ship board.

A bill was passed requiring three-fourths of the seamen employed on board of American ships to be citizens of the United States.

Mr. Chandler called up the House bill to repeal an act to encourage emigration, approved July 4, 1864.

Mr. Morgan moved to indefinitely postpone the further consideration of the bill.

Mr. Johnson said he could not see the necessity of the repealing act.

Mr. Morgan—It won't be repealed if you postpone the bill.

Mr. Morrill explained the nature of the bill, establishing a bureau of emigration, which it was proposed to repeal.

After discussion by several Senators, Mr. Morgan withdrew his motion and moved to postpone the bill until to-morrow.

Mr. Edmunds moved to lay the bill upon the table, and the motion prevailed.

Mr. Wade asked and obtained unanimous consent to introduce a bill for the admission of Nebraska as a State of the Union, and on his motion the bill and Constitution of the State of Nebraska was referred to the Committee on Territories.

Mr. Chandler called up the Senate joint resolution authorizing the Secretary of the Treasury to settle the accounts and pay the salaries of the agents of the Treasury in the South, who were unable to take the oath of allegiance. It provides that the Secretary be, and is hereby authorized to pay a reasonable compensation to those persons, by him employed for the purpose of, and who have been actually engaged in collecting the revenue in States lately in insurrection, notwithstanding their failure or inability to take the oath of office required by law; provided that said compensation shall not be greater in any case than that provided for by law for officers of the revenue performing such services; and provided further that the act shall not be deemed to authorize the continuance of such persons in such employment.

HOUSE.

Mr. Bingham introduced a bill to provide increased revenue from imported wool, which was read twice and referred to the Committee of the Whole on the State of the Union. Ordered printed. It consists of wool sections of the revised tariff bill passed by the House and postponed in the Senate, except that the ad valorem duty is increased from ten to eleven per cent. on raw wool; and on woolen manufactured goods the specific duty is reduced from fifty to forty cents per pound.

Mr. Delano offered a resolution that the House meet during this week at eleven o'clock and take a recess daily from 4½ till 7½, and that the first business in order in the evening sessions shall be bills on the Speaker's table, which was adopted.

Mr. Clarke, of Ohio, offered a resolution requesting the President to urge on the Canadian authorities, and also on the British government, the release of the Fenian prisoners recently captured in Canada, which was adopted by a vote of 102 yeas to 2 nays, the negatives being Messrs. Jencks and Williams.

Mr. Spaulding offered a resolution to cause the prosecution instituted in the United States Court against the Fenians to be discontinued, if compatible with the public interests. Adopted.

Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, offered a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of seven, to which all bills and joint resolutions now pending before any committee of the House, and all that may hereafter be offered, proposing an amendment to the Constitution of the United States, rendering any person who has been elected President ineligible to a second term; as also all bills and joint resolutions proposing a change in the mode and manner of electing President and Vice President of the United States.

On motion of Mr. Le Blond, the resolution was laid on the table by a vote of 71 to 42.

On motion of Mr. Schenck, the communications from the Secretary of War and reports in reference to the National Cemeteries for soldiers in Tennessee were ordered to be printed.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of the Senate amendments to the House bill granting the right of way to ditch and canal owners over the public lands in the States of California, Oregon and Nevada, which was under discussion at the time of adjournment on Saturday.

Mr. Julian addressed the House against the amendments.

The debate was further continued by Messrs. Kasson, McRuer and Higby.

Finally the Senate amendments were concurred in by 73 to 37.

Mr. Ashley presented the testimony taken before the Committee on Territories, in relation to Utah. Ordered to be printed.

Several applications from members for leave of absence having been made, the Speaker called attention to the fact that in the votes taken to-day there were only eighteen over a quorum.

Mr. Alley, from the Select Committee to investigate the assault upon Mr. H. Painter, [illegible] to the Postoffice Committee, presented the testimony taken, and [illegible] a resolution that Benjamin F. Beveridge [illegible] delivered by the Sergeant at Arms, into the custody of the civil authorities, to be prosecuted before the Criminal Court of the district, and that the testimony taken in the case be delivered to the United States District Attorney.

The Speaker overruled it as a question of privilege on the ground that both Houses had declared, by concurrent resolutions, that certain States which had not been represented in Congress during the last four years, should not be entitled to representation again until by the concurrent action of both Houses they should be declared entitled to representation.

Mr. Trimble appealed from the decision of the Chair, and, on motion of Mr. Stevens, the appeal was laid upon the table, yeas [illegible] to 18.

The House proceeded to the consideration of business on the Speaker's table, and disposed of it as follows:

The Senate amendment to the House joint resolution declaring Tennessee again entitled to Senators and qualifications of its own members, and inasmuch as this House had passed a joint resolution declaring the State of Tennessee restored to her former proper practical relations with the Union, and entitled to representation in Congress, that the members from Tennessee be sworn in.

The House, at 4:30, took a recess till 7:30, P. M.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The Bombardment of Valparaiso—Report Corrected by Commodore Rogers—Probable Adjournment of Congress on Saturday—Tennessee Legislature and the Constitutional Amendment—Pardon to a Rebel Senator—Senate Confirmations—Treaty between Maximilian and the French Minister—U. S. Attorney General Confirmed—Nominations Rejected—Bills Approved by the President.

WASHINGTON, July 23.—The Navy Department has letters from Commodore John Rogers, dated United States steamer Vanderbilt, San Francisco, June 25th, in one of which he corrects the error reported to have been made by Mr. Layard in the British House of Commons, in saying that his (the Commodore's) reports of the bombardment of Valparaiso, was inconsistent with that of Admiral Denman. He reports that Admiral Denman did at first agree to join him in opposing the bombardment, but afterwards decided not to take the responsibility.

Commodore Rogers also gives an account of the conduct of the ironclad Monadnock, during voyage from Philadelphia to San Francisco. She proved to be entirely sea worthy, even in the roughest weather. Great praise is given to Lieutenant Commander Bunce, who had charge of the vessel.

The President has authorized the issue of a pardon to A. E. Maxinea, a rebel Senator, in compliance with the earnest request of Vice President L. F. S. Foster, Senators Wilson, Nesmith and Morgan, Gov. Morton and John W. Forney, Secretary of the Senate.

The Senate to-day confirmed the following nominations: To be Deputy Postmasters—Thos. D. Steele, Sparta, Wis.; Wm. C. Rossman, Hamilton, Ohio; Archibald M. Hayes, Hastings, Minn.; John W. Deal, Chambersburg, Pa.; Chas. Holl, Oshkosh, Wis.; Frank Harmon, Oberlin, Ohio; John W. Graham, Cairo, Ill.; John Kensler, Connersville, Ind.; Alexander Delong, Huntingdon, Indiana; Ashbel G. Bear, Ashland, O.; George B. Filson, Steubenville, O.; Wm. Scherger, Massillon, O.; Wm. K. Smith, Hillsboro, O.; Mrs. Belle E. Purshall, Lebanon, O.; Joseph W. Don, Ottawa, Ill.; John D. Strong, Jacksonville, Ill.; Thos. O. Osborne, Chicago, Ill. To be Consuls—Wm. H. Weir, at the United States of Columbia; Jas. M. Edor, Buenaventura, Pereyvalo Gomila, Quebec, do; Charles Sproat, Toronto; Robert L. Bodine, Cape Town; E. C. Yates, of New York, at Asuncion, Paraguay. To be Assessors of Internal Revenue—O. C. Maxwell, of Lebanon, Third District, Ohio; Peter A. Keyser, Third District, Pennsylvania; Audley Wickersham, Eighth District of Illinois; Benjamin Gratz, 7th district, Kentucky. To be Collector of Internal Revenue, Ferdinand Van Vere, 3d district, Ohio. To be United States Marshal, John Logan, Southern district, Illinois. To be Lieutenant in Marine Corps, Lewis E. Hammersly, of Pennsylvania, and Frank A. Mallony, of New Jersey.

A letter from the City of Mexico received here, contains the intelligence that Maximilian has signed a treaty with Mr. Dano, the French Minister, with the following provisions: Seven thousand French troops will remain in Mexico in Maximilian's service, and the Mexican flag is to support them for five years. France will furnish besides to the Maximilian Government five hundred thousand dollars every month, for five years, to meet Maximilian's civil expenses. Maximilian is to give the Secretary for the money thus advanced, the Railroad from Vera Cruz to Mexico. Maximilian's revenues are to be collected by French officers.

The Senate to-day confirmed the nomination of Henry Stansberry to be Attorney General in place of Speed, resigned, and Thomas Harland, of New York, to be Deputy Commissioner of Internal Revenue. The Senate rejected several nominations, among them Thomas M. Wells, for Naval Officer, for the district of New Orleans.

The President has approved the bill making appropriations for Legislative, Executive and Judicial expenses; the bill extending the time within which States may select lands for agricultural college purposes, and the bill fixing the number of Judges of the Supreme Court of the United States, and to change certain Judicial Districts.

The last named bill provides that no vacancy in office of Associate Justices shall be reduced to six, and thereafter the Court shall consist of a Chief Justice and six Associate Justices. The first and second Judicial Circuits are to remain as now constituted; the third shall consist of Pennsylvania, New Jersey and Delaware; the fourth of Maryland, West Virginia, Virginia, North Carolina and South Carolina; the fifth, of Georgia, Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas; the sixth, of Ohio, Michigan, Kentucky and Tennessee; the seventh, of Indiana, Illinois and Wisconsin; the eighth, of Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, Kansas and Arkansas; the ninth, of California, Oregon and Nevada.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Post's Washington special says Speaker Colfax thinks Congress will be able to adjourn on Saturday.

The President received a dispatch from Nashville stating that the presiding officer of the Tennessee Legislature will not sign the constitutional amendment, on the ground that no constitutional quorum voted for it. The President informed several Congressmen that he should return the joint resolution admitting Tennessee, on the ground that he has had nothing to do with it, and maintains that no legal notification has been made by the Tennessee Legislature of the constitutional amendment.

FROM GREENSBURG.

Terrific Explosion of a Locomotive on the Pa. R. R. at Greensburg—Engineer Instantly Killed and Horribly Mangled—One Brakesman Killed and the Fireman Fatally Injured.

Special to the Pittsburgh Gazette.

GREENSBURG, PA., July 23, 1866.

At about 4:10 P. M. to-day, Engine No. 241, drawing the New York stock train, second section, exploded at the second culvert east of the tunnel at this place. The Engineer, Otto B. Westfall, was instantly killed. One of his legs was cut off and missing, the other nearly cut off, the bowels protruding and the brains oozing out of a gash in the forehead. The missing leg was eventually found in the "tank." Mr. Westfall was an old experienced railroader; was brother-in-law to the "Road Master" Shultz Spielman. He leaves a wife and two children living in Pittsburgh. He was insured in the Travelers' Accident Company, of Hartford, for $3,000.

The fireman, John Fanestock, was badly bruised about the head and left shoulder. He was seen going into the air, and [illegible] the flying boiler. It is supposed [illegible] was the fall that injured him, as he was found at the bottom of the embankment. He was carried to the McQuade House, where Drs. Loomison, Coffin and Arters did all they could to alleviate his sufferings. He is still living, but no hopes are entertained of his recovery. He has a wife and several children living in Pittsburgh.

John Low, the forward brakesman, was severely cut and bruised about the head, and died in about half an hour. He also leaves a wife and family residing at Dennys Lane, near the outer depot, Pittsburgh.

The front part of the train was made up of "flats," loaded with common brick and coal, and the back of stock cars, loaded. The stock was unhurt. A. J. Weaver, conductor, two brakesmen, a driver and his "pusher," escaped injury. The engine, which was an old one, is a total wreck. Many of the cars were smashed, and the track torn up. The west track, however, was not disturbed, and the Johnstown Accommodation and Express passed up on it last evening.

Assistant Superintendent Creighton, and Chief Clerk Watt, and others interested, came out on a "special," got the bodies dressed and coffined, and took them in on the emigrant train.

The citizens here rushed to the assistance of the victims with commendable haste, but alas, little could be done for them. Esquire Laird postponed the inquest until next Thursday. Will report Fanestock's condition to-morrow.

CITY AND SUBURBAN.

Additional Local Matters on Third Page.

Presentation to an Editor.

In our last issue we noticed that our friend, Daniel O'Neill, Esq., editor of the Dispatch, had been made the recipient of an elegant, gold headed cane, the gift of a few warm political friends. Mr. O'Neill appears to have met with a streak of luck, for last evening he was again agreeably surprised in his sanctum, by a number of his employees and graduates. It was a call, to present him a simple evidence of the esteem and respect held by them for him as an editor, employer and gentleman. The gift upon this occasion was a princely one, being a massive gold hunting case watch, one of the best ever brought to this city, and an elegant, heavy, fine gold chain, measuring eighty inches in length, the watch and chain together costing in New York city five hundred dollars. Mr. T. P. Houston, of the Gazette, made the presentation speech in a brief and fitting manner. He said that Mr. N. P. Reed, D. B. Ferguson and himself felt duly thankful to the employees of the Dispatch for permitting them to join in the testimonial to a gentleman to whom they felt so deeply obligated for past kindnesses while in his employ. Mr. O'Neill's universal kind treatment of his employees had won for him their esteem and respect, and his departure for Europe was a fitting occasion to bestow a simple evidence of the high regard in which he is held.

Mr. O'Neill responded in a happy manner, after which Messrs. Miller, Kuhn, Wiseman, Case, Ferguson, N. P. Reed, Geo. Reed, and others indulged in expressions of friendliness to Mr. O'Neill, and admiration and respect for him as a gentleman and employer. The company then adjourned to Mr. McGinley's Fifth street dining rooms, where an elegant repast was awaiting. Mr. O'Neill has reason to feel proud at this substantial evidence of the respect and gratitude of his employees.

Charged with Bigamy.

An Irish woman named Jane Ecklin came to the office of Justice Barker, in South Pittsburgh, yesterday, and made oath against Michael Ecklin for desertion and bigamy. Mrs. Ecklin alleges that some ten years since she was married to the accused at a place called Nowry, in the County Down. Six years after, he came to this country, leaving her at the house of his father, to whom, as well as to herself, he promised to send for his wife and two children as soon as he would earn sufficient funds to do so.

At first she received letters from him almost every mail, but at length they began to arrive at longer intervals, and finally ceased altogether. Fearing that he was dead, she made inquiry through a clergyman residing in Birmingham, who informed her that her husband was working in a coal pit near the city, and that he was married here and living with his wife. She immediately started for the United States, and on her arrival here on Saturday she discovered, what she had heard to be true. She called upon Ecklin on Sunday, but instead of receiving her as his lawful wife, he coolly told her she had no claim upon him whatever, but if she wished to stop here he would afford her lodging as long as she wished to remain. Mrs. Ecklin number two inquired of her husband what the stranger woman rested her claim on, when he answered that he knew her in Ireland, where she led an abandoned life, and was believed to be partially insane. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Ecklin, who since his coming to this city some four years since, has lived an exemplary moral life, and amassed quite a handsome sum of money, with which he purchased some real estate on Mount Washington.

Fatal Accident—A Man Horribly Crushed.

James Durning, an employee in Bidwell's plow factory, on the corner of Fayette and Wayne streets, was almost instantly killed yesterday, while at work among the machinery. It appears that one of the running gears by some accident was thrown off its wheel, and that in endeavoring to readjust it, Durning was caught by the arm in the machinery, and drawn up to the ceiling, a distance of thirty feet. Here he succeeded in disengaging his arm from the strap and fell to the ground, but ere he could escape, he was again drawn to the ceiling and again dashed to the ground. He was taken to his residence in the rear of 437 Penn street, where Drs. Pollock and Duncan were summoned to his assistance. On examination it was found that both arm and back were broken, while one of his legs was crushed almost to pieces. The injured limb was amputated at the knee, and, immediately after the operation was performed, Durning expired. The deceased had been in the employ of Mr. Bidwell for a number of years. He leaves a large family of children to mourn his loss.

The Sewickley Murder.

It is a matter of much surprise to our citizens that the good people of the neighborhood of Sewickley have as yet offered no reward for the detection of the human fiends who recently ravished and murdered the colored girl Caroline Ford. So long as these murderers roam at large we would not fancy that neighborhood a safe one for our wives and daughters. Successful in their first hellish deed the murderers will only bide their time for another favorable opportunity to repeat their double deed of rape and murder. It is true the victim in this case was a poor innocent colored girl, but her virtue and life were as dear to her as to the best of folks, and she should not go unavenged. If Sewickley was not wholly composed of wealthy citizens we should excuse the delay in offering the reward, but as such is the case we can attribute no good reason for the negligence. If a reward of five hundred be offered the murder may not long remain a mystery, but if no reward be offered the guilty wretches in all probability will escape.

Twin City Lubricating Oils.—The attention of machinists and engineers is directed to the advertisement of the Twin City Oil Company which appears in another column. This company are the sole manufacturers of a number of very superior brands of lubricating oils which are universally pronounced equal if not superior to any now in use. They are prepared to fill orders at the shortest notice at most reasonable prices. We commend the oils manufactured by the Twin City Company to engineers and machinists. The gentlemen having charge of the business of the company are honorable and trustworthy and in every respect worthy of the patronage of the community.

Held to Answer.

John Owens resides on Roberts street, in the Seventh ward. Desiring to repair a portion of his house he procured a load of lumber and placed it in front of his lot until such times as he would use it. Some days since a portion of it fell into the gutter, obstructing it so that the recent heavy rains caused a large pond there which finally burst and ran into the cellar of John McMurray, doing considerable damage to the building. Owens, refusing to compensate McMurray, for the injury sustained was arrested yesterday and brought before Alderman Taylor, who held him in $300 to answer at court.

The Wheeling Murder.

From the Wheeling Intelligencer we clip the following particulars of the horrible murder committed on Saturday night near that city.

Our city was the scene on Saturday night last, of one of the most horrible tragedies that come but seldom, yet sufficiently often to remind us of the brutal ferocity underlying man's nature. None has happened in the city heretofore so shocking to the moral sense of the community, and none have displayed a more unrelentingness of purpose, nor a cooler, calmer, more fiendish execution of it, than the murder of Mary Jane Riddle by Godfrey Lukerd.

The murder was committed at about ten and a half o'clock Saturday night, in Centre Wheeling, in the immediate vicinity of the deceased's house, situate between Market and Main streets, above Division, and in the rear of the new steam fire engine house.

Mary Jane Riddle was the wife of James Riddle, a hand on the steamer Potomac, now absent from the city; and it appears had been intimate with Lukerd. Trouble having arisen [illegible] Lukerd determined on revenge, and [illegible] accomplished his purpose.

Mayor Sweeney having received information that a murder had been committed, immediately proceeded to the scene, arriving about a quarter to 11 P. M., and sent for the Justice of the Peace for the Township, who at once summoned a jury of inquest. The following was elicited: First witness examined, Dr. James Cummins, who found six wounds in the body of the deceased. One in the right side of the neck, severing the carotid artery—one down through the left shoulder vertically, inside the collar bone, and four others in the breast. These wounds caused death.

The next witness was Mrs. Admyrah Gray, residing next door to the Riddles. This lady stated that a little after ten P. M. she was sitting at the door of her own house in company with her husband, and heard Mrs. Riddle's child call out "Oh Ma!" or "Oh murder!" at the upper side of her (Mrs. Gray's) house; that she ran to the window opening upon that side of the house and there saw Godfrey (she did not know his last name), who had hold of Mrs. Riddle, while she was trying to get away; but saw neither striking, nor knife. Mrs. Riddle then called "Oh, Mrs. Gray, I'm struck." Godfrey looked towards the window and made a rush at her as though intending to strike. Mrs. Riddle then went into her own house past that of Mrs. Gray. She thinks that inside of fifteen minutes Mrs. Riddle was dead.

The next witness was Mary A. Riddle, sister-in-law of the deceased, who lives in the same house with deceased. Was in the house a little after ten o'clock p. m., and heard Mrs. Riddle's child, aged about seven years, call out "Oh, Ma," at the upper end of the house. She ran out and up to the corner of Mrs. Gray's house, when she saw Godfrey Lukerd rushing past. She called his name when he struck (Mrs. Riddle, we suppose) and ran across the alley out of sight. Mrs. Riddle came around and went into her own house, saying somebody had struck her, fell on the floor, and in fifteen minutes was dead. She positively recognized Godfrey Lukerd and the knife in his hand, which she described as a white, straight handled knife, with a guard, blade straight, and three and three quarter inches long.

Gideon Gray was next examined, but added nothing to the above information.

The jury found that the deceased came to her death by means of a sharp instrument in the hands of Godfrey Lukerd.

We give a description of Lukerd, who escaped. He is a German, speaks broken English, four feet six to eight inches high, black hair, moustache and goatee colored black; has a felon on the thumb of his right hand, and carries the hand wrapped in a white handkerchief; had on a black coat, light vest, pants and hat.

Parties are out in all directions after Lukerd, who so far has made good his escape.

Larceny vs. Bailee.—Alexander Wright appeared before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, and instituted legal proceedings against his brother James Wright, for the recovery of the sum of one hundred dollars, entrusted to the keeping of the latter by the deponent some months since. The prosecutor states that he wished to use the money on Monday, and called on his brother to get it, but the latter, without assigning any reason for his strange conduct, utterly refused to return a single copper. A warrant was issued for the arrest of James, charged with larceny as bailee.

Threatened to Smash Her Nose.—Henry Dickson was charged before Alderman Taylor yesterday with surety of the peace, on oath of John B. Geis. In his deposition Geis stated that the accused used very insulting language to his (Geis') wife and finally threatened to smash her nose. Fearing that Dickson might put his threat into execution, the prosecutor determined to have a safeguard thrown around himself and family by appealing to the law. Dickson was arrested and gave bail for a hearing to-day at three o'clock.

Cross Suits.—Two individuals named Wm. Murphy and Arthur O'Halloran, hailing from that classic region known as "Hardscrabble," were before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday, to settle a difficulty that had twice been the subject of a petty strife. As neither were able to determine which was the best man, they concluded to resort to the law, by William suing Arthur for assault and battery, and Arthur returning the compliment. Each gave bail for their appearance at Court.

The Mail to be Weighed.—In compliance with an order issued by the Post Office Department, all mails transmitted over the Pennsylvania Railroad for the next thirty days will be weighed. In consequence of the great increase in the weight of the mail, the Railroad Company ask an advance for transporting the same. In order to ascertain the exact weight of the mails the above order has been issued.

A Feminine Belligerent.—Honora Welsh attacked a certain William Brannan near "Limerick Castle," in the borough of Temperanceville, yesterday afternoon, and ere he could make his escape, beat him in a cruel manner—his head bearing striking evidence of Honora's combativeness. Honora was arrested and placed in the tombs to await a hearing.

A Pittsburgher Murdered.—Thomas Welsh, at one time a resident of this city, where his parents still reside, was shot in a street fight in Bannock City, Idaho Territory, on the second of the present month. He died almost instantly. The perpetrator of the deed, William Joyce, escaped to the mountains, and at last accounts had not been heard from.

Had a Hearing.—Daniel Green and William Jameson, whose arrest on a charge of highway robbery we noticed in yesterday's issue, had a hearing before the Mayor since, which resulted in their being committed to jail for trial at the next term of the Quarter Sessions.

THE EUROPEAN WAR.

So far, so good! Prussia does not submit to NAPOLEON's arbitration, and Italy advances against his express orders. What will be the consequences? Either France recedes from her unwarranted position of providential viceroyship, or she forces the allies to an acknowledgement of her superiority. And that might be rather a ticklish undertaking. NAPOLEON has seen too much the effect of the needlegun to desire its application to his own individual case without very good reason. He is very much in the position of the lion tamer, who has raised a couple of the royal cubs and has succeeded in handling them for a good while, but gradually they attain their full growth and strength, and having by chance tasted the master's blood issuing from a casual scratch in his hand, they become ferocious and unmanageable and awaken in his breast the natural desire to make a respectable exit out of their den. SCHILLER in his Don Carlos makes PHILIP, King of Spain, say of the prince royal: "Carlos, the lad, commences to be terrible "to me," and this language would come very natural from NAPOLEON. Victor Emanuel, whom he has nursed and raised, (for full compensation, of course) begins to be restive under his reins and shows unmistakable signs of kicking! COUNT BISMARK, his tool, his creature, who owes his position in Berlin merely to the influence of LOUIS, ventures to be independent and disregards the hints of his imperial friend as if he were blind and deaf at the same time. What black ingratitude! What mean return for kind intentions! LOUIS, we do pity you, for we imagine to see a little black cloud rising in the distant sky which might portend storm. Having failed in thy great Mexican expedition, losing the control over thy European friends and tools, fearful of domestic troubles, could it be possible that thou shouldst become an object of pity rather than fear? Could it be possible that thou shouldst serve for one of those telling instances where retribution is meted out in full vigor here on earth already?

Such a thing is not only possible—shaping events make it even probable. NAPOLEON's overtures are not only spurned on both sides, but Italy, hitherto so shy of his displeasure, dares to go ahead in spite of him. CIALDINI is across the Po, and follows the retreating army of the Austrians. BISMARK also politely declines the French offer, and, really, no sensible man will blame him for it. Let us sift these French proposals, and the cloven foot of the author will appear in every paragraph. The German Confederation is to be dissolved and a new one to be created in its stead. Of this new Confederation neither Austria nor Prussia shall be members. Now, if this proposal does not bear open-faced impudence on its countenance, we do not know what impudence is. In regard to Austria—well, as it is already pushed out of doors by its victorious adversary, the proposition might answer, as it would not alter the position much. But in regard to Prussia! It is too preposterous to think of it a minute. One of the main purposes for which Prussia commenced this war, was a closer union of the German States and a greater influence of Prussia in their affairs. Could Prussia be expected for a moment to agree to a proposition so deadly to its interests? We almost think it was merely offered to produce a refusal and look for developments in keeping with this view. The second article provides for the Rhine as the western boundary of Prussia, and her compensation for the provinces she would thereby lose, by the cession of Hesse-Cassel, Hesse-Darmstadt and Brunswick. The provinces of the above named States are to be indemnified by receiving the Prussian provinces of the left bank of the Rhine. Truly we do not know what to admire more in this proposition, its stupendous insolence or its deep cunning. France offers to the victorious Prussians as a compensation what is even now in their possession, and endeavors to collect on its frontiers a crowd of small Princes, who would have to look to France for protection, and would in reality be nothing better than French vassals. Prussia might as well commit suicide at once, as accept such a proposition. If she would not consent to have weak Denmark stand with one foot on German territory in the North—she can impossibly suffer powerful France to enjoy this privilege in the West, and this proposal is therefore as absurd as the first. Not even Hannover does NAPOLEON allow to Prussia, although it could, if hostile territory, with one blow sever the vital arteries of Prussia. No Baden is to receive it as compensation of territory ceded to France; Or, do these propositions contain no demand for land on the side of France? Some towns and districts were kindly permitted to join France, if so inclined, and if this is not a demand clearly expressed, we confess not to know the meaning of the word.

As a matter of course, Prussia could not, did not for a moment meditate the acception of those proposals. What she demands, is in keeping with her achievements: exclusion of Austria from the German diet, a closer union of the several States, the right of Prussia to command the Federal army and to represent Germany at the foreign Courts. This is worthy of Prussia, but Napoleon becomes alarmed, he sends the Prussian demands to all the foreign Powers and points to them, as something injurious to European interests. If he had said injurious to his untenable, inflated position, he would have come nearer to truth; but as a matter of course, that does not suit him, for he never says what he means, and never means what he says.

And England? Is she still asleep? Does she not see a great crisis approaching? And in this crisis, will she persist in maintaining the unnatural position she now occupies? O! if we could but seize her by the sluggish shoulder and shake her up to a proper understanding of what she owes to herself and to the world. We consider this war merely as the prelude, the overture to the coming struggle, a struggle between light and darkness, between liberty and despotism, a struggle, which will signify to Europe, what our late war signified to the western continent.

DISSOLUTION OF THE CABINET.

The President's 22d of February speech was a Declaration of War against the men and measures of the Republican party. It was not such a Declaration as sometimes comes of temporary passion or ebullient spleen; but a Declaration fully considered in all its bearings and consequences, and designed to be maintained to the end at all hazards. What has since followed, including the Dissolution of the Cabinet, has been the natural and intended result of that initiatory proceeding.

There are persons who did not take this view of the case; who imagined that whatever waywardness or eccentricity he might exhibit, he was nevertheless true to the essential principles for which he was chosen from the mass of his countrymen, and elevated to the highest position of conspicuity and influence; and that it was best to humor his outbursts of temper, in order to retain his confidence and lead him ultimately to the acceptance of better counsels. These persons were simply mistaken, as the end has demonstrated. It would have been much better if the Republican party had met the President's fulmination in a spirit, calm, indeed, but animated by an invincible energy. Instead of this, by deceitful compliances he was led to believe a large part of the Republicans seconded his views, and were ready to participate in any arrangement essential to their general adoption and success.

If immediately after that speech all the true men in the Cabinet had resigned, and an appeal had been promptly taken to the people on the issue as presented, some defections would have been restrained, and the appearance of subserviency with a view to the retention of the offices would have been avoided. The resignations, though long delayed, are not unwelcome to the loyal people of the country. The President, of his own choice, now stands where TYLER and FILLMORE stood before. We remember that on one or two occasions he stated he had the examples of those of his predecessors before his eyes, and protested he did not mean to follow in their footsteps. We had as little faith in his asseverations then as we have now that time has demonstrated his insincerity.

MR. SEWARD, of course, will remain in the Cabinet. Honored as few men have been, his ambition is nevertheless disappointed. One place, and that the highest, has so far eluded his grasp. For five years he has meditated his revenge upon the party which was once proud to acknowledge his leadership, but at last hesitated to trust its destiny to his discretion. Under specious pretexts, his thought has been to surrender it, bound hand and foot, to its enemies. Like Mr. WEBSTER he has soiled the glory of his life and embittered his declining years, by signing over his ambition plighted, and by giving himself up to the study of revenge. Soon, nothing will remain to him but, like his prototype, to turn his face to the wall, and in bitterness of soul, to die.

What now remains foa the Republican party? The State elections to be held within the next four months will decide its fate. The masses of the party are sound to the core, and if the leaders prove adequate to the crisis in wisdom and intrepidity, the result will be auspicious. The President has at last thrown off all disguise. His intentions are revealed. The men who elected him, whose confidence he has betrayed and whose organization he is seeking to destroy, will not follow him. He has marched into the democratic camp attended by a few officers, but with no retinue of rank and file. The men who saved the nation once are ready and able to save it again.

POLITICAL.

—Arkansas will elect three Congressmen and other State officers on the first Monday in August next.

—One of the Clymer organs says that 50,000 persons were present at the Reading meeting. A cypher too much.

—Columbus Delano has been re-nominated for Congress by the Union party of the Thirteenth Ohio District. The Democrats of the Fourteenth District have nominated J. B. Young; the Republicans General Coburn. In the Indianapolis (Ind.) District, the Republicans have nominated General William Harrow.

—The call issued at Montgomery, Ala., July 4th, for a convention to send delegates to the Philadelphia convention is signed, except in one instance, by former secessionists and active rebels. Dead-head Transportation Company.

We have received the following clever take off upon the presumptive claims of hundreds of citizens to ride free over our railroads. It reads thusly:

PROSPECTUS OF THE UNIVERSAL TRANSPORTATION COMPANY,

For the free accommodation of dissatisfied dead heads, sponges, leeches and others, from and to the unknown ends of the earth and the moon, stopping at all intermediate points!

This Company has been organized in opposition to those heretofore in operation, and whose limited resources were exposed on the occasion of the last national anniversary, when they were enabled to carry, free of charge, only from 4,000 to 5,000 persons, some 300 to 400 miles, to say nothing of the other thousands who, in their capacity, they carried at low rates of fare.

This Company will be prepared to carry, free of charge, all the world and the rest of mankind, their families, friends and relations, even unto the third and fourth generations, especially those who have made a good thing by holding Government and other public positions—tickets or passes will not be required—it will be sufficient if the parties desiring transportation merely state that they come under the above general description.

The cars of this line will be of the best and most luxurious of modern construction, with the additional advantage that instead of the present uniform and stationary "seats for two," elegant moveable lounges and sofas will be provided, to be disposed and placed as the passengers may desire; and to prevent overcrowding not more than two persons will be allowed in one car. Cars for the exclusive use of families and clubs furnished at five minutes notice. Numerous complaints having been made by some of the small companies, that during the war carried whole armies, of damage done to their cars and fixtures, the managers of this company take pleasure in informing their patrons that anything of this nature will be passed without notice; and, indeed, they will the more appreciate the disinterestedness of the passengers if they will occasionally rip open the expensive upholstery of the lounges and sofas, spoil and injure them with their feet and other nuisance; break out the car windows and doors; pitch out the lamps, stoves, and other fixtures, and finally leave the cars fit only for the habitation and transportation of live stock.

This Company has also determined to introduce another feature into their business, namely, that instead of gruff and ungentlemanly conductors who never answer questions with satisfaction, but continually harass passengers for their tickets or fare, the cars will be plentifully supplied with well bred and highly educated ladies and gentlemen whose study it will be to omit nothing that will add to the comfort, convenience and pleasure of the passengers, to give satisfactory answers to all questions upon all subjects, and who will furnish, free of charge, meals, lunch, ice cream, liquors, and all other delicacies and refreshments at all hours, regardless of expense.

The managers have also determined to abolish the custom of running the trains at a regular rate of speed, and of stopping only at regular stations. The trains of this line will be under the control of the passengers themselves and the engineers, who will be polished gentlemen, will be instructed to run the trains and to stop at such points as the passengers may direct. Arrangements will also be made with connecting roads, to have cars always ready at the junctions on the arrival of the trains of this company so as to make sure connections at all trains, and under all circumstances.

This company will also establish, at short distances along their line, first-class hotels, at which passengers can stop off at pleasure, and where they will be entertained in luxurious style at the expense of the company, with the right to continue their journey at pleasure.

In consequence of the perfection of the arrangements for their trains, the company do not anticipate any delay or accident of any kind, but to make assurance doubly sure, they have entered into a contract under which an agent of the Universal Auxilliary Insurance Company will accompany each train and furnish every passenger, free of charge, with a policy of insurance that will secure $50,000 in case of death, and $100 per week and a gold watch or other desirable article of value in case of injury, besides free nursing and attendance at the company's expense in one of their magnificent palatial hotels at the sea shore.

At proper points on the route, first class ocean and river steamers, balloons, and other modern means of progression will be brought into service, and the local conveniences of travel peculiar to the different countries passed through, will be in readiness for those passengers who may desire to make use of them.

The Company hope by a strict attention to the wants of the traveling community, to merit a liberal share of patronage and invite suggestions for the addition of any further improvements and conveniences that may serve to advance their line in the popular favor, thereby engaging to adopt anything and everything that may be proposed—the motto being "Pro Bono Publico." Dividends no object.

Aggravated Assault and Battery.

J. W. Douglass appeared before Alderman Donaldson yesterday and made oath against James and David Ott for assault and battery. It appears that Douglass and the Otts occupy adjoining farms in the vicinity of Chartiers Creek, about five miles from the city. The fence that divides their premises fell down last week, and on Saturday morning one of Douglass' cows entered the corn-field of Ott, who seized it and placing a rope around its neck was endeavoring to take it to his barn, when Douglass, who had witnessed the transaction, interfered and demanded that the cow be returned to him. An altercation ensued, during which Douglass was knocked down by one of the Otts, while the other beat him on the head with a stone, inflicting several ugly gashes around the temples, causing the blood to flow profusely. As soon as Douglass recovered sufficient to make the journey he came to town and made the information as stated. The Otts were arrested and brought to the city, but were released on giving bail for a further hearing to-morrow.

United States District Court.

In the United States District Court yesterday, Judge McCandless, on motion of District Attorney Carnahan, ordered a decree of forfeiture to issue against the distillery owned by Benjamin F. Hook and Morgan R. Wise, and located in Franklin township, Greene county. The distillery was seized early last Spring by the Revenue Collector of the District, in consequence of the failure on the part of the proprietors to make proper returns, and on the 27th of last April a libel was filed against it by District Attorney Carnahan. A motion was issued, but thus far the proprietors failed to appear in behalf of their property, and the decree of forfeiture was made in consequence of this neglect.

Ungrateful.

Mary Ann Johnston was before Alderman Taylor, yesterday, charged with assault and battery by a woman named Louisa Anderson. The prosecutrix alleges that Mrs. Johnston is the manageress of a peculiar boarding house in Mulberry Alley, and that she has been a boarder in the institution until yesterday, when a difficulty ensued between her and the proprietor, growing out of a former law suit, in which Louisa acted the part of bailee for Mrs. Johnston. Forgetful of past favors the former struck the latter a violent blow on the back and pushed her into the street. Mary Ann was committed for trial.

Oil in Columbiana County, O.—The Columbiana Petroleum Company have, after patient and persistent labor, been rewarded with an excellent show of oil at one of their wells, near the town of Likton. At a depth of five hundred feet, large quantities of gas were encountered, succeeded shortly by unmistakable evidences of the existence of an excellent quality of oil in promising amount. We believe this well is one of several owned and operated by the "Ashland" company. Experienced oil men informed us yesterday that the same class of indications in the Pithole regions would be considered as of the first order. We congratulate our friends of Columbiana on their success, and heartily wish them the fullest scope of their expectations.

Burglary the in Eighth Ward.—The residence of Mr. Samuel Ryan, on Forbes' street, in the Eighth ward, was burglariously entered on Sunday night, and robbed of several articles of ladies' wearing apparel, an overcoat, the property of Mr. Ryan, and a couple of cooking utensils, the whole valued at about forty dollars. It is supposed the thief effected an entrance through a grating in the pavement leading into the cellar, and from thence through a trap door into the dining room, where the articles stolen were placed. On a shelf in the same room lay a gold watch, but fortunately, this escaped the observation of the thief, who, in his haste, made but an imperfect search.

Teachers Elected.—After a rigid examination the following teachers have been chosen for the ensuing year in the Second Ward, Allegheny: Assistant Principal, Miss S. B. Nichol; First Grammar, L. Smart; Second Grammar, L. V. Brown; Third Grammar, S. Haley; Fourth Grammar, E. McHenry; Fifth Grammar, M. D. Leckey. Medium, First, J. Harris, Second, H. A. Graham; Third, R. McClane; Fourth, Maggie Brown. Primary, First, Sallie A. Druitt; Second, S. A. Payne; Third, S. A. Hutchinson; Fourth, M. A. Stratton; Fifth, L. T. Early; Sixth, M. Lindsay. The election of a Principal was postponed.

Charged with Larceny.—Margaret Jordman was before Justice Lipp yesterday, charged with the larceny of a wheelbarrow from the stable of a certain John Brown, who's stable adjoins the house of the accused. From the testimony adduced at the hearing, it appears that Margaret only took the wheelbarrow for the purpose of wheeling some coal from the street into a rear yard. There being no criminal intent shown, it is more than probable Margaret will be discharged.

Settled.—Thomas Cedar was arrested and brought before Mayor McCarthy, yesterday, for assaulting a certain William Iavab. The parties have hitherto been warm, personal friends, and after a little conversation in the presence of the magistrate they concluded to settle the feud, which was finally accomplished by Thomas paying the costs.

Another Row.—Another disgraceful disturbance occurred at a couple of beer saloons on Pennsylvania Avenue, late on Saturday night. Some of the parties were very roughly handled, but as they were all Teutons, and unable to make known the cause of their grievances, we are unable to give the particulars.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

The President and the Education of Negroes—A Colored Delegation Wait Upon Him—More Removals Contemplated—Smuggling Vessels Captured—Favorable Report on Randall's Nomination.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The morning papers contain the following specials from Washington: A delegation of colored men, headed by Dr. Randolph, an octoroon of New Orleans, who has long been connected with the education of negroes in Louisiana, had an interview with the President yesterday, to satisfy themselves of the truth or falsity of the charge that he was inimical to the negroes or opposed to their educational advancement.

During the interview the President said on the subject of the education of the black race: "I am decidedly by all means in favor of advancing the cause of learning among them. I most cordially endorse your efforts to establish schools for them, and will give you all the assistance in my power, for I am the true friend of the black man. No one living desires him to advance in education, refinement and civilization, more than I do, for on that depends his future usefulness to himself, his race, and his country."

The President is said to have determined to remove Isaac Newton, the present Commissioner of Agriculture, and John Defries, the Superintendent of the Government printing office. Numerous applications for both vacancies have already been received.

The Committee on Foreign Affairs of the House have completed an elaborate report on the subject of the neutrality laws, and will, it is understood, recommend a thorough revision of the statutes affecting our neutral relations with other Governments.

The following are the amounts, free of tax, to which officers from the rank of Colonel down to Second Lieutenants are entitled under the act of Congress approved July 12th, 1866, appropriating three months pay to those who served till the close of the war: Colonels $810, Lieutenant Colonels, $684; Majors, $538.50; Captains in command, $513; Adjutant and Regimental Quartermaster, $513; First Lieutenant, $427; Second Lieutenant, $384 75, Cavalry Colonels, $900; Lieutenant Colonels, $812 25, Majors, $584; Captain in command, $508 50; Captains not in command, Assistant Adjutant Generals, Commissaries of Subsistence, and Assistant Quartermasters, $541 50; Lieutenants or Surgeons, $456. Seven thousand claims under this act have already been received at the Paymaster General's office. It is anticipated that a million of dollars will be required to liquidate all thus incurred.

The Commissioner of Customs has received information of the capture of four or five smuggling vessels off the coast of North Carolina. Some of the cargoes are considered quite valuable.

Hon. C. Washburne still lies quite ill at the house of General Grant, although somewhat convalescent. He has leave of absence the remainder of the session, with permission to delay his report on the Memphis affairs until next December.

The Senate Postal Committee finally agreed on Saturday to report favorably on the nomination of A. W. Randall to be Postmaster General. This will make his confirmation sure.

The Cholera in New York.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The pleasant weather of the past three days has had the effect of preventing any further increase of the cholera in this city. The number of confirmed cases yesterday was fourteen. One of them was a man who was discovered dead on Chambers street.

The epidemic is increasing on Governor's Island. There were two deaths yesterday, and more than the usual number of cases. It appears that of twenty-four cases on the Island, all were boys from sixteen to twenty years old. Prompt measures have been adopted for the suppression of the epidemic, and arrangements are being made to supply the troops with better water than they now drink.

On Hart's Island the cholera is severe, the average being from twenty to thirty daily, with a proportion of from ten to fifteen per cent. of deaths. Diarrhea prevails among the officers and men to some extent, and the greatest care is required to prevent it from merging into cholera.

There were five new cases in Brooklyn yesterday, which were removed to the new cholera hospital, corner of Van Brunt and Hamilton streets.

From Mexico—Imperialists Seeking Protection of the American Flag.

NEW YORK, July 23.—The Herald's San Francisco correspondent says: The steamer Continental arrived there on the 24th, from Mazatlan on the 13th, bringing a large number of Imperialists who are flying from the wreck of the Empire, and seeking protection under the stars and stripes, which they find the demoralized forces under Maximilian unable to afford. The refugees give a gloomy account of affairs. All is confusion and violence, and disorder reigns supreme.

Sinaloa is completely invested by the Liberals under Corona, who has a large and well armed force under his command. At every place south of Sinaloa, where the Imperialists were in the ascendant, the Liberals are in arms and making headway.

The Americans in Mazatlan complain bitterly of the want of protection afforded them. There is not a government vessel either at Mazatlan or Guyamas.

The Atlantic Cable—Vessels Sailed to Assist the Great Eastern.

ST. JOHNS, N. F., July 20.—The weather here is all that could be desired by the friends of the Atlantic cable enterprise, being very clear with light winds. Her Majesty's ships Niger and Tillie left for Heart's Content this morning. These are appointed to await the Great Eastern off Trinity Bay. The steamer M Stevenson also left this morning to put down four buoys off Heart's Content. The people here are apathetic about the cable, and very few are going to Heart's Content this year. A telegraph office was opened there to-day.

Horrible Murder at Wheeling.

WHEELING, July 23.—A married woman named Riddle was horribly murdered on Saturday evening, near her residence, by a German named Lukerd. The victim was stabbed six times in the neck and breast, and died within fifteen minutes after receiving her wounds. The murderer is still at large.

SEMPER PARATUS.

PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this, that there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me while I give you the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $1.50; Children's Slippers at 25c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot, ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.

—The New York [illegible] to the National debt excites little remark. It is of no great importance, and only puts at rest the project of funding the National debt into a five per cent stock, free of income tax. The section which obliges National Banks, after January 1st, 1867, to hold "plain legal-tender notes" as a reserve, instead of compound-interest notes and temporary loans to the treasury, as at present, foreshadows a dearer and more active money market, but it has no immediate effect. The section authorizing the sale of surplus gold is another process by which legal-tenders are to be reduced, but there is no danger of any large contraction of currency from this cause very soon.

—The Boston Bulletin says:

The Commissioner of Internal Revenue has decided that the tax of ten per cent on State bank notes, paid out after July 1, shall not be collected. We would most respectfully inquire what right this government employee has to remit a lawful tax. The enactment levying the said ten per cent was a law in full force up to Friday of last week, when the new tax bill postponing the levy to August 1 went into effect. Many honest and law abiding bankers so understood it, and, at considerable loss, stopped at once the use of their old note. Others, less scrupulous, ran the risk and paid them out. The last have been rewarded for their bad deeds.

The Commissioner has somewhat to say regarding what he understands as having been the intentions of Congress in this matter. We have always supposed Congress made intentions manifest in its laws. The question of the legality of this ten per cent is likely to be tested before long. Eminent lawyers have expressed [illegible] that a "revenue tax" cannot be [illegible] for purposes other than that of a re[illegible]. They view this circulation tax as a [illegible] of prohibition, and not of revenue—as an attempt to extinguish, by an indirect method, a subject or thing taxed which has been recognized lawful.

—The following are some of the largest sales of business houses in Chicago, reported by the Times of that city:

"During the year ending May 1, 1865, the sales of the three leading dry goods firms were as follows: Field, Palmer & Leiter, $[illegible]; J. V. Farwell & Co., $[illegible]; Bowen Brothers, $3,150,000. During the year ending May 1, 1866, the sales of the same houses were as follows: Field, Palmer & Leiter, $[illegible]; J. V. Farwell, $[illegible]; Bowen Brothers, $[illegible].

"The three heaviest wholesale grocer firms in 1865 figured as follows: Day, Allen & Co., $[illegible]; Pollard, Doane & Co., $[illegible]; C. Cook & Co., $[illegible]. This year we have: Day, Allen & Co., $[illegible]; C. Cook & Co., $[illegible]; George W. Flanders, $[illegible]; Hinsdale, Stacy & Endicott, $[illegible].

"Among the wholesale dealers in hardware we find the following figures credited to Hall, Kimbark & Co.: 1865, $[illegible]; 1866, $[illegible].

"In 1865 the heaviest produce and commission merchants were C. H. [illegible], $[illegible]; H. O. Armour & Co., $[illegible]; Wm. Little & Co., $[illegible]; Maitland & Scranton, $[illegible].

"We have this year Munn, Norton & Scott, $[illegible]; Sprague, Preston & Co., $[illegible]; Davis, Pope & Co., $[illegible]; Maitland & Scranton, $[illegible]."

New York Money and Stock Market.

NEW YORK, July 23.—Money remains very easy at [illegible] per cent. on call. Sterling Exchange dull and lower. [illegible]

[illegible]

The Post's money article says: [illegible] to the lender.

The loan market is easy and [illegible] at 4@5 per cent. Commercial paper is [illegible] at [illegible] the dullness of business, the plethora of unemployed capital, and [illegible] with the concentration here of large amounts of national bank notes to produce a very tranquil money market, in which the rates continue in favor of the borrower.

The Bank statement offers no features which attract special interest. In consequence of the disbursements from the Sub-Treasury the deposits have increased nearly six millions, while the loans have been reduced three millions; hence the Legal Tenders have increased nearly five millions. The specie has declined about a million and a half. The stock market is very dull, and quotations have a drooping tendency. Before the Board very little business was done, and prices were nominal. Foreign Exchange dull.

The Commercial's money article says: The stock market shows a sharp reaction from the activity of last week. Governments are scarce. Money is easier. Call loans are [illegible] per cent. Gold is scarce for delivery, [illegible] per cent. being paid on borrowed gold. The [illegible] on Saturday, took $[illegible] in specie.

The following were among the principal sales at the four o'clock open board to-day, the market being dull: Western Union Telegraph, 56¾; Erie, 65⅞; Chicago and Rock Island, 96¾; Michigan Southern, 81¾; Reading, [illegible]; Chicago and Northwestern preferred, [illegible]; Chicago and Northwestern, 35⅞.

Gold closed at 150⅝. Money very easy, 4 to 5 per cent. on call.

WEEKLY BANK STATEMENT.—Loans, $[illegible]; Decrease, $[illegible]; Specie, $[illegible]; decrease, $1,301,557; circulation, $[illegible]; decrease, $[illegible]; legal tender, $[illegible]; increase, $[illegible]; deposits, $2,130,490, increase $[illegible].

Wool.

The Ohio Farmer has the following in relation to the condition of the wool trade:

The postponement of the tariff bill has had its influence throughout the whole west, and wool to-day will not command as much by near seven cents as it would two weeks since, when both growers and buyers had hopes of its passage. We can hear of no sales that reach 60c, and must put down the range at about the point at which the opening of trade found it—from 45 to 55c. We see some wool taken in at from 45c to 50 cents that ought really to go ten cents higher. A great deal of wool has been gathered up in the west by new buyers on speculation, at prices that could not now be realized. But much of this condition is owing to fear and doubt, and a few days will clear the atmosphere, and let these buyers see, we hope, that they have not gone beyond a safe limit. The western wools are really worth, tariff or no tariff, all that has been paid for them.

Boston Fish Market.

BOSTON, July 21.—The receipts of new Mackerel [illegible] for the season; the better grades are beginning to appear; but all kinds are taken about as fast received, and stocks have not yet begun to accumulate. We quote new No. 2s at $15@16, No. 3s, $13@14 per bbl for large, and $11@12 for medium. Old mackerel are mostly out of the market and nominal. PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, July 23, 1866. }

The produce markets continue dull and neglected, with but little prospect at present of any immediate improvement. The demand for Flour and Grain, and, in fact, all of the leading commodities, continues very much restricted, and we have but very few round lot operations to report.

PROVISIONS—The demand for Bacon is only moderate, but prices are fully sustained—17 to 17½ for Shoulders; 19½ to 20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for Plain Hams, and 25 for Sugar Cured do. Lard is dull at 21 to 22. Small sales of Dried Beef at 27½@28. Mess Pork dull and unchanged.

GRAIN—There is a very good supply of Wheat in the elevator, but unfortunately for holders, there are no buyers. Oats dull but unchanged; sales at 46 to 50 for common to prime White—small sales from store at the usual advance. Sale of 1 car shelled Corn at 75. No movement in Rye or Barley.

FLOUR—Continues quiet and weak though prices are without further change. We continue to quote at $10 to $10,75 for Spring Wheat, and $12@$12,50 for fair to choice brands of Winter Wheat. Rye Flour is dull and nominal.

POTATOES—Continue to arrive very freely and the market is rather dull though prices remain unchanged at $2,50 to $3 per bbl, as to quality.

EGGS—Scarce and in demand, and, in consequence, prices have advanced 2@3 cents per dozen, sales having been made to-day at 20@22 cents.

BUTTER—Prime fresh firkin Butter is scarce and higher, selling readily at 25. Packed [illegible] be quoted at 22@25c, in first hands.

CHEESE—Is dull [illegible] at 15@16 for Western Reserve, 17@18 for Hamburg, and 20@21 for prime New York Goshen.

SEEDS—Flaxseed is wanted by crushers, and sells readily on arrival at $3. No movement in Clover or Timothy.

LARD OIL—Is dull, and a fraction lower, sales being reported at $1,75@1,80.

SORGHUM—Is dull, and prices are barely maintained, notwithstanding there is but very little in market; may be quoted at 55@60.

GREEN APPLES—Are coming in quite freely, and prices are steadily giving way. We quote at $4 to $5 per bbl, for fair to prime.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, }
MONDAY, July 23, 1866. }

CRUDE—The excitement and buoyancy which prevailed on Friday and Saturday was followed to-day by extreme quietness. Our refiners appear to have suddenly come to the conclusion that they have already contracted for all the crude they will require for the next sixty days, and, to use a common phrase, "they have retired from the market." So far as we could learn, there was not a single transaction either for present or future delivery, and we quote nominally at 12¼ to 12½, for good gravities of bulk on the spot, and 12½ to 13 for August and September delivery. There appears to be a difference of from ¼ to ½ a cent per gallon, and neither parties seems disposed to succumb, though the general tone of the market appeared to be in favor of buyers.

REFINED—The arrival of another foreign steamer with adverse reports in regard to oil, had a tendency to stagnate and unsettle the markets in the east to-day, and this, as a matter of course, had, to some extent, a corresponding result here. As yet, however, there has been no change in prices, as compared with Saturday, though some buyers are asking for concessions, and the tendency seems to be downward. Sales reported of 500 bbls, 1st to 15th of August, at 40; 1000 do for same month, at 40½; 500 for October, at 41½; 1000 do at 41½, 1000 for November, at 42½. Also, on Saturday, but not before reported, 1000 for August, at 40; 1000 for September, at 40; 1000 for October, at 41; and 1000 for November, at 42. There was a sale of 1000 bbls of "rejected" oil to-day at 31½, for immediate delivery in Philadelphia. No movement in Free oil.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals are beginning to increase a little, but as the river is again falling, the receipts are not likely to be as large as generally predicted. The following were reported to-day:

Fisher & Bro.	137	Duncan & Dunlap	141
Jas Wilkins	411	R. D. Cochran	290

RIVER NEWS.

The river commenced to recede on Sunday night, and continued to decline steadily all day yesterday with about six and a half feet in the channel by the pier marks last evening. Private advices from Oil City yesterday reported the Allegheny falling, with twenty inches in the channel at that point. The weather was very pleasant, though the indications continue favorable for more rain.

The Forest City is only arrival we have to report from below. She will return again to-day at noon. The Elector and Gallatin left for Brownsville last evening, and the Fayette and Chieftain are the regular packets for this evening leaving promptly at 5 o'clock.

A large number of tow boats got off during Sunday and yesterday, for different points below, with very fair tows, taking out over two millions bushels of coal. The Albion stuck three of her barges belonging to J. Sharp McDonald, at "Merriman;" the Alps sunk tow barges belonging to S. J. Bigley, at "Brunot;" the Reindeer sunk one barge belonging to J. Dippold; and the Reindeer stuck five barges belonging to the Coal City Coal Co., at "Merriman." There may have been other mishaps, but the above were all that came to our knowledge. The "run" is a very heavy one, especially for this season of the year, and it is to be hoped, though it is hardly possible, that we shall hear of no more accidents.

The Kenton, for St. Louis, and the Arabian, for Cincinnati, were announced to leave last evening.

The Ida Rees No. 2 came around from the Allegheny wharf last evening, and will at once commence loading for Cincinnati. She will make an excellent low water boat on the Ohio River.

[illegible] States Local Inspectors, George H. [illegible]inson and Samuel Walker, desires us to state that at a regular meeting of the board of Supervising Inspectors, it was ordered that after the 1st day of August, 1866, all steamers inspected must be provided with a lock-up safety valve—size and plan to be seen at the office of local inspectors, Custom House, Pittsburgh.

Capt. Adam Jacobs, of the "Union" line of steamers plying between here and Brownsville, very generously extended an invitation to the inmates of the "Sanitary Soldiers Home" to make a trip to Brownsville and return. The invitation, so kindly extended, has been accepted, and to-day the "boys" will leave on their excursion—it is unnecessary to say that they will have a very pleasant trip.

The St. Louis Democrat, of Saturday, says: The river is on a lively and cheering decline, that is to say, the river has been so long high hence to Cairo, that lower water will be very agreeable to owners of a large number of medium sized boats. There is four feet to Keokuk, three and a half feet to Prescott, and thirty inches on that interesting bar. The Missouri has kept up remarkably this season, but is sure to get as low as usual by and by, and then boats won't go along in that stream so gaily, drawing five or six feet. A lot of stern-wheelers will be seen rolling into and out of it, and doing considerable service to their owners. The Illinois remains steadfastly low, there being 25 inches on the flats. The Illinois Packet Company had to charter the Camelia to navigate that stream with barges. We advise those who own steamboats not to sacrifice them. Not only for stern-wheelers, but for every class of boat, there is a brisk time close at hand.

The Republican, of same date, says:

Elliott & Co., and Capt. Ashford, of Memphis, have purchased one-half of the steamer Des Arc, at the rate of $[illegible] for the whole boat. Capt. Ashford takes command, Capt. Berry retiring.

Yesterday about noon the steamer Montana reached our levee from Fort Benton, near the mouth of Milk river, with the trip of the Tom Stevens, that boat having been turned back by the United States authorities to be used as a transport. She had a very rough trip down, being detained by high winds which at times blew a perfect hurricane. Everything was quiet on the way down, no hostile Indians being seen, and game was not as plenty as past seasons. The Montana had over $100,000 in bullion on board, and a large amount in the hands of private parties. Among the passengers were a number of miners who have made their pile and are on their way home to enjoy it.

The steamer Iron City, with troops on board, while ascending the river, was fired into by a band of supposed Sante Sioux Indians at a point about one mile above the Yellowstone river. The mate of the boat and two deck hands were wounded.

CURES

All Diseases of the Lungs

A case of five years' standing cured by DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.

PITTSBURGH, January 11, 1866.

DR. KEYSER—My wife has been afflicted with a cough and difficulty of breathing for five or six years, which, for several years back, had gradually increased in violence. The complaint has been hereditary, and she had been treated by several physicians without any relief. In this state of her case I procured some of your PECTORAL COUGH SYRUP. I bought, the first time, a fifty cent bottle, which relieved her very much. I then called and got a dollar bottle, which cured her entirely, and she has now no trace of the former disease, except weakness. I would also state that I used the medicine myself for a cold and cough. The medicine cured me by taking one dose. I express my entire satisfaction with the medicine, and you are at liberty to publish this if you desire [illegible].

WM. WILSON,
Alderman, Fifth Ward

PITTSBURGH, April 24, 1857.

READ THE TRUTH.—DR. KEYSER—I have a daughter who has taken several medicines for a bad cough without relief, among them Ayer's Cherry Pectoral. I purchased from you a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, and before she had used half a bottle she was relieved. The second bottle cured her entirely of her cough.

JOHN DARIN,
Robinson street, Allegheny.

PITTSBURGH, December [illegible].

A GREAT CURE BY DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I live in Peebles township, Allegheny county. I had a cough and spitting, which come on me about the 4th of February last, and continued eight months. I employed the best physicians in the country, and my cough continued unabated until early in October. At that time I was advised to try your Pectoral Cough Syrup, which I did, and after I had taken one bottle I was entirely free from the coughing and spitting. I had despaired of ever getting well, and I think it should be known that this valuable remedy will do for others what it has done in my case.

JOHN C. LITTLE,
Witness: R. M. KERR. Peebles township.

PATTON TOWNSHIP, April 14, 1865.

A WONDERFUL CURE.—Some time ago an old neighbor of mine was very ill with a bad cough, which every one supposed to be consumption. His relatives told me that he had taken every remedy they heard of without benefit. His brother came to see him die, and all were convinced in the belief that he could not live. I had about the third of a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which I gave him, and it entirely cured him, to the astonishment of all. What makes the case more remarkable, is the extreme age of the man, he being about eighty years old. I have no doubt the Pectoral saved his life.

JOHN McGINNIS.

DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP IN BLAIRSVILLE.—Please send me another supply of your valuable Pectoral Syrup. Almost everybody around us has the cold, and are enquiring for "Dr. Keyser's Pectoral Syrup." We have sold sixteen bottles the last week, and are now entirely out. Mr. A. Alter and Mr. P. Maher, both of Blairsville, Pa., told us they would not be without it in their families. In fact, all who use it once want it again.

Yours, respectfully,
J. S. WATTERSON & SONS

January 20, 1866.

PITTSBURGH, November 18, 1865.

DR. KEYSER:—Although not an advocate of Patent Medicines, in general, I afford me pleasure to be enabled to recommend your PECTORAL SYRUP, as a medicine, it is worthy the attention of any person who may be any manner be afflicted with coughs, colds and diseases of any kind, and for the peculiar qualifications for removing all that distressing sensation attending a severe cold.

I have been troubled long in my life, afflicted with the severest of colds and hoarseness. At times, I could scarcely speak above a whisper, and by taking a few doses of the above Syrup it would relieve me entirely.

In recommending this medicine, I must unhesitatingly say that it is the best remedy I ever found purporting to cure the above, nor should any family be without this remedy for diseases so prevalent.

Yours, most respectfully,
EDWARD J. JONES,
Cashier Citizens' Deposit Bank.

STEUBENVILLE, Ohio, March 11, 1865.

I have used Dr. Keyser's Cough Syrup for a bad cough of several years standing, and can cheerfully say it is the best medicine for the same that I have ever taken.

J. W. PRICE.

COL. PRATT AND DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—DR. KEYSER—Dear sir: Excuse the delay in my acknowledging the excellence of your Pectoral Cough Syrup. [illegible] I take great pleasure in saying that it is all you say it is. It knocked the noise out of my cough, and the worst one I was ever afflicted with. [illegible] and I do wish that all who are afflicted would give it as fair a trial as I have done, and they will be proud to say, "It is no quack medicine." [illegible] I am confident I can breathe more freely than I ever did. I shall always acknowledge a debt of gratitude for inventing so excellent a remedy. You are at liberty to use my name in this regard as you think proper.

E. F. PRATT,
Messenger Common Council, Pittsburgh, Pa.

N. B.—I am no stranger to my fellow-citizens, and any who entertain doubts can consult me personally.

E. F. P.

ANOTHER NEW CERTIFICATE.—DR. KEYSER'S PECTORAL SYRUP.—I had been troubled with a cough and cold for several weeks—so bad was it that I could not sleep. I had the advice and prescriptions from three of the best physicians in the city, whose names I could name, but do not do so. I finally bought a bottle of your Pectoral Syrup, which cured me entirely.

J. W. SIMONTON,
No. 36 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa.

January 8th, 1866.

"STOP THAT COUGHING."—"How can I do it?" Go to Keyser's, on Wood street, and get a bottle of his Cough Pectoral, and if that don't cure you, your case must be desperate indeed." This is a specimen of the colloquy one hears every day in cold-catching periods of the year. And we can, from actual experiment, cheerfully concur in the adviser's admonition as above, for we have tried the "Pectoral," in a most stubborn case, with entire success. Near two weeks ago we went to Pittsburgh, with one of the most distressing, contrary, unmilitant, unsubduable coughs we ever experienced since our advent upon this mundane sphere. We coughed steadily and laboriously for one whole week, in hopes of tiring it out, but it was no go. In fact, it seemed rather to have improved by practice, and to have acquired strength, potency and distressibility by the operation. In this stage of the siege, we sought a bottle, by a [illegible] to Keyser's, No. 140 Wood street, procured a fifty cent bottle of the "Pectoral," took it according to directions, and in forty-eight hours we were master of the field, the enemy having unconditionally surrendered, after a brief, but inglorious conflict with so formidable an adversary as Keyser's famous Cough Pectoral.—Brownsville Clipper, Dec. 14, 1858.
